

EU INDEPENDENT
FISCAL INSTITUTIONS

Agreement of the Network of EU IFIs

The Network appoints Seamus Coffey, Chair of the Irish Fiscal Advisory Council, to serve as the Chair for a term of two years starting on 7 November 2019. Sander van Veldhuizen, programme leader at the CPB – Netherlands Bureau for Economic Policy Analysis, is appointed as Deputy Chair, for a term of the same length. Their main responsibility is to represent the common interests of the members of the Network to external stakeholders, inter alia on matters pertaining to the EU fiscal framework. In particular, their role is to propose strategic guidance to the Network and steer the discussions related to its agenda and work programme; to represent the Network at relevant events, and to liaise on behalf of the Network with key partners in supra- and international bodies such as the Commission, the OECD and the IMF.

The Network thanks José Luis Escrivá, Chair of the Spanish Independent Authority for Fiscal Responsibility and Chair of the Network in the last four years, and Giuseppe Pisauro, President of the Italian Parliamentary Budget Office and Deputy Chair of the Network in the last two years, for providing effective leadership and a lasting contribution to the development of the Network.
